

OUTER

an overview

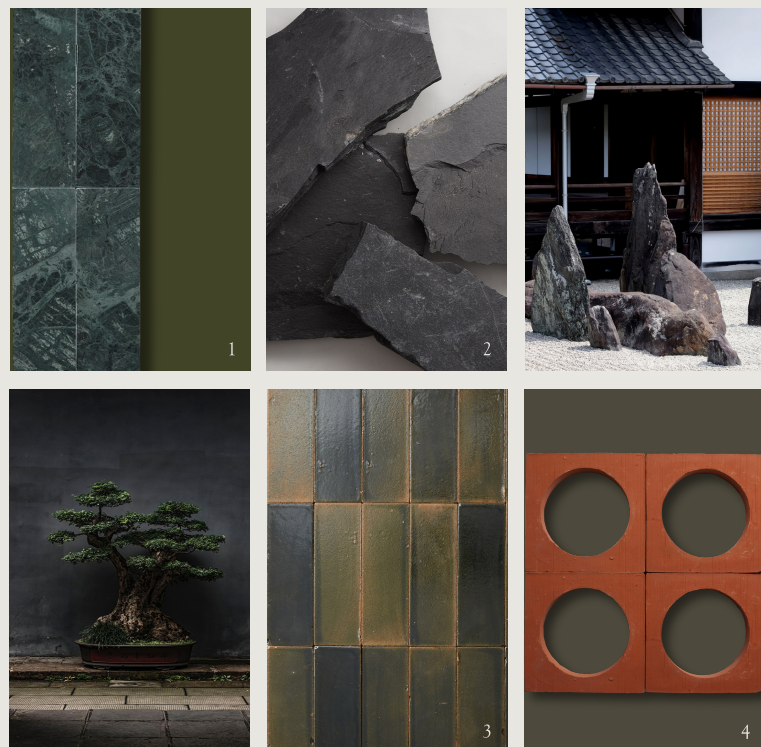

OUTERclé introduces new visual language for outdoor design: a new world of genre-changing collections of outdoor tile, materials, and objects that blur the boundaries between function and expression.

MANOR

Our homage to the English garden, MANOR is where good manners meet something a bit less “done”. Imagine teas and terraces, cress and croquet, mazes and parterres, wanderings through a cottage garden or beyond in uncharted hills. Legends and literature. Daydreams and reality.

KENJO

Round the corner, slide open the door... into stillness. Silence. Calm. The sublime. Your pulse slows. Welcome to KENJO. The essence of the Japanese garden, more a philosophy than a set of motifs, the place where art and nature are so entwined that together they're reborn.

FORME

Purity, simplicity, the essential. FORME is the power of negative space, the primacy of nature, light, shadow, and yes, color. Le Corbusier meets Barragan in calm, harmony, and peace. Less was never so much more.

METROPOLIS

New York: city of storied neighborhoods—and unexpected outdoor spaces. Upper East Side elegance. Industrial modern in Tribeca. Brooklyn brownstone romance. Harlem’s bohemian eclecticism. Opera, jazz, funk, punk: METROPOLIS is all the moods of the city that never sleeps.

LOGGIA

The Italian way of life, where the small pleasures—particularly outdoors—become extraordinary. Meals that taste of the surrounding earth and the cook's hand – spare but expert. A dip in the pool holds the day's heat at bay, while the cooler nights roll into the same, tomorrow.

NORDIK

Scandinavia: the land of apparent contradictions. NORDIK is where light meets dark, hygge meets minimalism, where the harshest climes meet a fierce love of outdoors and nature. An otherworldly allure springs from the very juxtaposition and tension—and it fascinates, soothes, renews.

LOTUS

The tropics—where the intensity, the pure, pulsing, wild energy of nature is never far away. LOTUS is a feast for the senses: the heady scent of jasmine, bougainvillea, and orchids, the hum of cicadas, the inevitable surrender to heat, humidity. Let the languor overtake you.

MAROC

Look around. The gifts of Moorish culture are everywhere: the architecture of the Mediterranean, the magnificence of tile—and the mastery of the art of outdoor living and hospitality. In MAROC, pleasure is the essence of life, senses are nourished, passions kindled.

'58

The year America broke with the past, when all seemed new, fresh, possible. As old rulebooks got tossed, nature came indoors and the indoors ventured out. A time of Eames and Neutra and Wright, Mad Men and suburbs, of cocktails on the deck, pool parties that lasted till dawn. That's '58.

MISSION

Mission evokes the ultimate oasis: a place, a state of mind, a space to exhale, to dream, to be. From a lush, Moorish-inspired dream—all lush foliage and rich hues—to endless space and powerful simplicity, it's the quintessence of serenity, sanctuary, fantasy. Journey to MISSION.
